ARMY CLASSIFICATION PSYCHIATRIC SOCIAL WORKER

Men psychiatric social workers, for the first time in history, have the opportunity to engage in social case work within the Army.
This is permitted by Army Classification Number 263.

Qualifications call for at least two years of supervised experience in a public or private case work agency or a degree in social work from a recognized school of social work.

A man up for induction who meets the qualifications may request an army assignment as a psychiatric social worker in a clinical or hospital unit. The request should be made at the induction center or reception center classification interview. A private or noncommissioned officer in the Army may apply for reclassification.

At present the following are not covered by 263: men commissioned by the Army; men in the Navy, Marines, Coast Guard or Seabees; WACS, WAVES, Marines, or SPARS; and men over age for the draft.
